

Mission Statement

Last Updated Thursday, 26 March 2009

As a non profit exchange organisation, the mission of Experiment Albania is to organize volunteer, educative and cultural exchanges in Albania between people from the entire world.

By this way, we want to contribute, making possible the understanding and the living together of people from different countries in peace.