10 Days Program

Program orientation

The participant will be welcomed at the airport by a representative of Experiment Albania. A one day orientation will be provided upon arrival in Tirana. This program orientation will cover basic information about customs, values and daily life in Albania. Basic Albanian language course will be provided to the participant, in order to enable him/her to communicate with the local people. This orientation concludes with the exploration of Tirana, the capital of Albania, visiting many cultural and historical buildings like National Historic Museum, Mosque of Et'hem Bej, Ottoman bridge of Tabakeve, etc.

Volunteer service

Following the orientation, the participant will start the volunteer program. Some available volunteer projects are as follows:

- working in orphanage (animation with children, helping the teachers, the cookers of orphanage, arranging the garden, painting the classes, rooms of orphanage)
- working for different local NGO's and their projects
- working in the local schools in Albania
- working with street children and disabled people

Projects are available all year around and are only in Tirana, the capital of Albania.

Visits during the program

Throughout the program, the participant, accompanied by the local experiment guide, will visit the cities of Kruja and Berat, including the most important historical and cultural places of these cities like Museum of Gjergj Kastrioti Scanderbeg, Ethnographic Museum and Traditional Bazaar in the city of Kruja, the archaeological museum and roman amphitheatre in the city of Durres.

Homestay

During the program, the participant will live with an Albanian host family and will experience the famous "Albanian warm hospitality", as it is said in the Albanian expression: "Buke, kripe dhe zemer (Bread, Salt and warm heart).
